TELEGRAPHIC NEWS.

REPORTED FOR THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

From Vicksburg.

ox, June 1.—Grant demanded the surrender of g Thursday, giving three days. Pemberton, in minutes, answered that he would die in the trenches. he Federal troops are demoralized, and refused a new attack Saturday. The gunboats are fir- hat. Federal loss 25,000 to 30,000, including Kerr, Lay, Bushbridge, Boman, and one other. dson is invested.

New Orleans Refugees.

Or wipe for us the falling tear.

And lightened half our grief and care.

NG FOR HIS COUNTRY BY PROXY.—The Lynch- Republican is responsible for the following state-

Southern soldier related to us yesterday a good of one of our members of the late Congress, which me to be lost. We omit the name. When was a candidate for Congress in one of our ne Southern States, he was opposed by a gentle- who distinguished himself greatly in the early of the war. Discovering in the course of the ss, that his opponent's military reputation was ating strongly to his prejudice, he concluded to let people know that he was not unknown to fame soldier himself, and accordingly in his next speech tiated on his achievements in the tented field as ws: Gentlemen, my competitor has told you of ervice he has rendered in the war. Let me tell that I too, have acted an humble part in this orable contest: When the tocsin of war first nded the chivalry of the sunny South to rally fense of their threatened liberties, I, fellow citi- animated by that patriotic spirit which grows e bosom of every true son of the South, hired a stitute for the war, and the bones of that man now bleaching on the blood ensanguined plains of Ma- nas." This the sovereigns considered glory enough one man, and he beat his antagonist out of sight. Confederacy

THE YANKEES AGAIN CROSSING THE RAPPAHAN- k.—The following is from the Examiner of Mon- :

Through persons direct from the army, we learn t on yesterday it was reported and generally be- ved among our troops, that the enemy was crossing e Rappahannock in force at Ellis' Ford, twenty les above Fredericksburg. It was said that a con- derable body of infantry and artillery had already ched the south bank of the river. It was further d that Gen. Lee had been previously informed of e designs of the enemy, and had been looking for m to come over for several days.

Our troops are represented as much elated by the rospect of another battle, and certain of victory.

Previous to the receipt of this report it was believ- here that a portion of our troops had crossed the appahannock, at or near Rappahannock Station.

It is proper to add that even now the rumored cross- g of the enemy is not generally credited in this city. t is thought that the fact that Hooker is known to e moving up and not down the Rappahannock, as eported some days ago, has given rise to the report. t may be that the Yankees have made the discovery hat Aquia Creek and Falmouth are not the most holesome localities in the world during the summer months, and are seeking a base nearer the famous plains of Manassas.

GEN. BUCKNER'S HOUSEHOLD FURNITURE CAP- URED.—Intelligence was received last week by our military authorities that a quantity of fine furniture, the property of Sir on Bolivar Buckner, was conceal- d at the house of a rebel in Elizabethtown, awaiting transportation to the South. Lieut. Brown was des- atched to the point mentioned, on Friday, and suc- eeded in capturing a great quantity of silverware, everal rich sofas; bedsteads, centre tables, mirrors, nd all the articles usually found in a fashionable res- idence, together with a rebel officers uniform. The rticles captured filled two cars, and were brought to his city Saturday.—Louisville Journal.

GEN. MORGAN.—We are gratified to see that the Gov- rnment has at last done justice to the gallant soldier. He as been turned loose it is said with instructions to report o no one but Gen. Johnston. We have the first fruits of he movement in the following dispatch from Morgan him- elf, dated Monticello, Ky., May 12th, 8 A. M.:

"I have met the enemy, 10,000 strong—the cavalry un- er Woolford, the infantry under Gen. Carter—and have epulsed them, with heavy loss. They retreated across he Cumberland, leaving their baggage, camp equipage, etc., in my hands. They lost three hundred drowned while crossing the river. I am on the field burying dead Yankees. My loss is light, considering two days' engage- ment."

THE REPULSE AT VICKSBURG.—A dispatch was received a few days ago at Gainesville, Ala., from Gen. Pemberton to Mrs. Pemberton, dated Vicksburg, Saturday evening, 23d May, in which he says: "We have repulsed the ene- my the sixth time, with great slaughter. I think the worst is over, and Vicksburg is now safe." This dispatch was brought to Jackson by a lieutenant of Gen. P's staff and sent by telegraph from that city to Gainesville. We publish it because it confirms dispatches received at this point, and stamps with falsehood the Yankees boast that the "stars and stripes floats over Vicksburg."—Rich. Whig 1st June.

DESIRABLE INVESTMENT IN TEXAS LANDS.

ONE-HALF OF THE

JUSTO LIENDO TRACT.

THIS TRACT OF DESIRAPLE LANDS WAS SE- lected for his home site many years since, by Col. M. B. Menard, who was an extensive land owner in Texas, and one of the leading founders of the city of Galveston. The property has never passed out of his family, since its purchase by him, and one-half of it only is now offered for sale for a change of investment, and will be sold in parcels of one-fourth of a league, or 1,100 acres each.

It is situated in Milan county, within the

about 45 miles North-Eastward from the Capital of the State, and about 55 miles Northwestwardly from Brenham, the present terminus of Railroad communication with Galveston and Houston.

The tract is divided in two nearly equal parts by Brushy Creek, (emptying into San Gabriel river,) and comprises an admirable combination of lands for agricultural and pastural pursuits. High and dry post oak lands, filled with fencing materials;

ROLLING PRAIRIE, WITH

commanding a view of the entire tract;

RICH TIMBERED BOTTOM

on both sides of the Creek, rising from there to a fine prairie covered with mesquite grass (not the bearded) and which extends uninterruptedly to the banks of the San Gabriel, from 12 to 15 miles distant.

UNSURPASSED FOR GRAZING PURPOSES,

This region of country is not surpassed by any in Texas, in

REGULARITY OF SEASONS,

DELIGHTFUL CLIMATE AND

and the tract itself forms one of the best investments for present use or future profit to be found in Texas,

THE LAND OF PROMISE AND OF PEACE.

During the dry year of 1860 in Texas, Mr. Conolly's farm, (on a portion of the tract,) yielded an average of 50 bushels of corn, and 15 bushels of wheat to the acre. There are numerous flouring mills in Milan, and the adjoining counties of Bell and Williamson.

All the small grains grow well, cotton yields one bale to the acre, horses, mules, sheep, hogs and and are largely raised throughout the region. The titles to the land have never been questioned, and are unquestionable, and there are no squatters on it. The settled portion of the State extends far beyond Milan county, in every direction.

The property now belongs to J. S. Thrasher, Superintendant of the Press Association, and one-half of it is offered for sale, only because the acceptance of the duties of his public position involves the necessity of a partial change in his investments.

It is offered at private sale until the 7th day of August, when if not disposed of, it will be sold at public auction, without reserve, for cash, in Confederate Treasury notes in the city of Atlanta.

For further information, and plan of tract apply to

NORTH CAROLINA CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

NEW SERIES.

IT IS CONTEMPLATED TO RESUME THE PUB- lication of the North-Carolina Christian Advocate at an early day, under the patronage of the North-Carolina Conference, and under the direction and ownership of a joint stock Company, composed of ministers and laymen, to secure its permanency.

It will be as its name imports, a CHRISTIAN Advocate.—It will sustain and defend the doctrines and discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and labor to advance Christ's Kingdom on earth, and to promote peace and good will among all men.

Besides its earnest, religious character, it shall be an advocate of the moral, educational and industrial progress of North Carolina—a welcome visitor to every family and to the camps of our brave soldiers, and a faithful chronicler of what may be useful and interesting, and of the current news.

All our traveling and local ministers and the stockholders of the Company, are specially requested to act as Agents for the paper.

The old subscribers of the Advocate will be supplied with the new series, to the full amount due them at the time of its suspension, but as the mail books are not in the possession of the Editor, he must rely on the old subscribers themselves and the Agents, to furnish him with their names and post offices and the amount due them.

The Advocate will be well printed on good paper, and will contain an amount of reading matter equal to any paper in the State.

During the continuance of war prices, the subscription price will be $3 per annum, always in advance.

Agents who send us ten or more new subscribers and the Cash, will be entitled to a copy of the paper for one year. It is desirable that a large list be sent in at once.

Address WM. E. PELL, Editor.

Raleigh, N. C. Jan. 2, 1863.

SUBSTITUTE WANTED.

A SUBSTITUTE IS WANTED TO GO INTO THE 2nd N. C. Cavalry, now in Virginia. A horse and equipments will be furnished if desired. A liberal price will be paid. Apply immediately at

May 22-tf PROGRESS OFFICE.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 3, 1863.

ADVANCE IN OUR TERMS.

When we commenced the publication of the PROGRESS here in November, we got paper at 25 cents per pound and fixed our prices accordingly, but now we pay 50 cents a pound for paper, while ink, labor, telegraph news, and everything else has advanced from 50 to 100 per cent.—For these reasons we are compelled to make a slight advance in our terms of subscription to enable us to meet the heavy expenses of publication and support those dependent on us. If paper falls in price we shall fall; but if, on the other hand, it continues to go up, we shall have to go up or suspend, and we cannot think the public would submit to that.

On and after the 1st day of June, 1863, the price of subscription will be as follows:

Daily Progress	One year - - -	$10 00
" "	Six months - -	6 00
" "	Three months -	4 00
" "	Two months -	2 00
" "	One month - -	1 50

Until the 1st of June subscriptions will be received at the present terms.

Agents and nowsdealers will be furnished at the old rates.

☞ How to send us Money.—To avoid all risk in sending money for subscription by mail, we have made arrangements with the Southern Express Company, by which all money can be sent for subscription to the PROGRESS at our risk and expense. Subscribers will enclose the amount to be sent in an envelope directed to the DAILY PROGRESS, and seal with wax, writing their name and Post Office, and the amount sent on the outside. Deliver the same to any Agent of the Southern Express Company, and take his receipt. Send a letter to us by mail, advising us of the date when sent.

The Editor is, for the first time since the publication of the Progress was commenced in this city, absent from his post. Any shortcomings in this number we are sure will be overlooked. He will be at home in a few days.

Lieut. James W. Emack.

Our readers will remember the unparalleled achievement mentioned in Brig. Gen. James H. Lane's official report to Gov. Vance of the part taken by his Brigade in the late battles near Fredericksburg, where a lieutenant and four of his men captured an entire Yankee Regiment. This gallant officer was Lieut. James W. Emack of the 7th Regiment N. C. Troops, who was mortally wounded, at Chancellorsville.

We clip the following notice of his death from the Richmond Sentinel. Verily "the path of glory leads but to the grave:

Wounded, in Sunday's fight, the 3rd of May, lingered until the following morning at 10 o'clock, Lieut. James W. Emack, of Prince George County, Maryland.

When our country just at this time is so much in need of faithful and brave soldiers, he immediately left for the bloody conflict and shed his life blood in her service. It was his first battle, and with much sorrow for those who mourn, it proved to be his last. He is now sleeping, as we believe, in Jesus. His body found its last resting place on the bloody field he fought so bravely to defend. No earthly pen is needed to write his praise! No crumbling marble to mark his last resting spot! But the wild spring flowers, and the bright green grass will mark it, and the little birds will sing their morning and evening requiem over the soldier's grave. For his deeds; are they not entered in the Book of Life? Yet, affection for him who has left us, wakes a tribute to his name.—His gentleness and truthfulness, his handsome and manly form, won from many an heart love more lasting than fame. "We loved him well," but still we cease to mourn, when we know his toils and sufferings are ended, and he is dwelling in that bright world beyond, where no more the clashing of arms shall be heard, nor the cries of the wounded and dying; there no mourner mourning for the dead, for all is happiness and peace. "He being dead, yet speaketh"—"go and do likewise."

THE VIRGINIA ELECTION.—An election took place in Virginia on Thursday last for Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Members of Congress and Members of the General Assembly. The returns are yet too meagre to decide who have been the successful candidates for Governor and Lieutenant Governor, but the contest for the latter office evidently lies between Gen. Smith, Democrat, and Thos. Stanhope Flournoy, Conservative. The following is the supposed results in the Congressional Districts:

In the 1st District the candidates were M. R. H. Garnett, the present member, and Lieut. Gov. Montague. Returns, meagre, but indicate the election of Montague.

In the 2d District the candidates were Gen. Mahone, Cols. Godwin and Parham, and Messrs. Hume and Whitfield. This district is entirely in the hands of the enemy, and the vote cast was by refugees and soldiers. Very few returns have been received, and no idea can be formed as to who has been successful.

In the 3d District (Richmond, &c.,) Mr. Lyons, the present member, has been defeated by Col. Wickham.

In the 4th District, Mr. Collier, present member is re-elected over Judge Gholson.

In the 5th District there was no opposition to the present member, Mr. Bocock.

In the 6th District the contest was between John Goode, jr., present member, and Col. Wm. Martin. Goode believed to be re-elected.

In the 7th District, Wm C. Rives elected without opposition.

In the 8th District, the contestants were D. C. Dejarnette, present member, and James Barbour. Returns indicate the re-election of Dejarnette.

In the 9th District, Col. Funsten is elected over Mr. Menifee.

In the 10th District, Mr. Boteler, the present member, was opposed by Col. E. W. M. Holliday, who is supposed to be elected.

In the 11th District, Col. Baldwin is re-elected over Gov. Letcher.

In the 12th District the candidates were Mr. Staples, present member, and Col. H. A. Edmundson. No returns received.

In the 13th District the contest was between Mr. Preston, present member, and Col. Fayette McMullen. Returns favorable to the re-election of Preston.

In the 14th District the candidates were Messrs. Fitzhugh and Miller. Mr. Miller is the present member, and is believed to be re-elected.

In the 15th District Mr. Johnson, the present member, had no opposition.

In the 16th District, Mr. Russell, present member, was opposed by Dr. Kidwell. Result not known.

BOARD OF INTERNAL IMPROVEMENTS.—Owing to sickness in his family, Mr. Eaton could not attend the meeting of the Board of Internal Improvements on Saturday last. The Governor and Mr. Flanner were in attendance, but we learn that no important business was transacted. The Board will meet again on the 19th of this month.—Stand.

LATEST FROM THE NORTH.

The Philadelphia Inquirer and New York Herald, of the 28th, furnish the following news:

VICKSBURG.

CHICAGO, May 27.—A special dispatch from Cairo to the Journal, says:

"The paroled prisoners who left Sherman's Landing on the 22d inst., state that a bearer of despatches from Gen. Pemberton to General Johnston, had been captured. The dispatch bearer reported that the number of rebels at Vicksburg was between 25 and 30,000 men.

On Friday morning General Pemberton sent a flag of truce to General Grant, offering to surrender Vicksburg, if the latter would allow his troops to lay down their arms and march out. The offer was refused.

On Thursday the rebel batteries on the north of the town were taken and burned. On the evening of the same day the batteries at the foot of the hill were captured; and on the same evening the water batteries below Vicksburg were taken by Gen. Porter's mortar fleet.

On Friday, after refusing to accept Pemberton's terms of surrender, Gen. Grant moved on his works, and the rebels were driven into their inner fortifications.

Gen. Logan guards the Black River bridges. Gen. Grant feels certain that he will be able to take care of Johnston. The latter has only ten thousand men exclusive of what he may have by re-inforcements.—Gen. Grant's army is larger than is generally supposed and quite enough for the work on hand. It stretches completely around the doomed city, each wing resting on the river.

The city of Vicksburg is full of women and children, comprising not only the original inhabitants, but many who have come from the surrounding country for safety.

A special dispatch to the Chicago Times, dated "three miles to the east of Vicksburg, May 25th," says:

Our wounded at the battle of Champion Hill number over seventeen hundred. The enemy's loss is acknowled to be not over half that. We had about 20,000 troops engaged, and the enemy about ten thousand.

According to the accounts given by their wounded, we took three thousand prisoners and about three thousand were killed and wounded at the battle of the Bridge.

Gen. Sherman crossed on pontoons. McClernand and McPherson's forces built their bridges on Sunday night, and crossed their commands by Monday noon.

At four o'clock the advance of Gen. Sherman's corps, under Gen. Steele, advanced on the enemy's works, back of the city, and took a position on the right on the bluffs above. They then commenced the bombardment.

Gen. McPherson planted his command in front, or in the centre. McClernand took the extreme left, reaching almost to the river below.

All possibility of escape is cut off. Everything, every living man, woman and child must fall into our hands. During the forenoon yesterday the different brigades were taking their position, forming their lines of battle, &c. At 2 o'clock the battle began. There had been skirmishing all the morning.

Gen. Steele drove the enemy from the several forts, and took one complete line of fortifications fronted by rifle pits. His extreme right rested on the river bank, under the bluff, at sundown. His division fought gallantly all day, though the men were hungry, dirty, foot-sore and sleepy.

Sherman's left and McPherson's right are in supporting distance. Both advanced their skirmishers to within fifty yards of their breastworks, and their artillery to within five hundred yards, and are in position at these distances this morning.

McClernard is not progressing so fast, but is doing well. We lost one thousand five hundred in killed and wounded.

This morning there is firing on the enemy's works from all points.

A special dispatch received here from Murfreesboro' says that rebel prisoners report that on Sunday last a courier arrived with a dispatch from Col. Breckenridge to Gen. Wheeler, at McMinnville, acknowledging that Vicksburg had fallen, that Pemberton had escaped with almost his entire army, but had lost his artillery.

THE REBELS LEAVING TULLAHOMA FOR MISSISSIPPI.

LOUISVILLE, May 27.—Passengers from Nashville report that large portions of the rebel army are leaving Tullahoma, and it is supposed are moving in the direction of Vicksburg.

THE LATEST OFFICIAL INTELLIGENCE.

WASHINGTON, May 27—Midnight.—The latest official intelligence from Vicksburg is up to 4 o'clock on Sunday morning, when all is represented as going on well.

THE LATEST IN THE HERALD.

WASHINGTON, May 27—Midnight.—The latest intelligence received by the Government by way of Memphis, is up to 4 o'clock of morning of the 24th, and is from our army in front of Vicksburg, announcing simply that Vicksburg was still holding out, but General Grant was still confident of speedy success.

The losses in the fights at Thompson's are put down at 628 from thirty regiments and three batteries, with two divisions to hear from, which will swell the losses to 900.

PENNSYLVANIA MATTERS.

Governor Curtin has gone to Washington to consult with Lincoln as to how that State can be protected against invasion.

There was a riot in Harrisburg on Monday night, among the soldiers there, because they had not been paid off. They are soon now, however, to be paid.

There has also been a riot at Huntingdon, Pa., some soldiers just returned having broken up a printing office.

FROM NORTH CAROLINA.

The enemy made a reconnoissance from Newbern on the 28th, capturing 200 of the 58th North Carolina Regiment, a field piece, small arms, equipments, &c.

The Sea Bird, of Philadelphia, was captured and burned at the mouth of Neuse river, on the 20th. The rebels attacked her in small boats. The Captain and crew were made prisoners.

All rebel troops in this State are said to have gone to Virginia.

Foster is said to be visiting and strengthening his different military posts.

FROM TENNESSEE.

Advices from this Department say that Bragg has directed that sick and disabled soldiers and baggage, calculated to retard a march, be sent to the rear.—From this it is inferred that Bragg will evacuate soon.

FROM KENTUCKY.

Pegram is said to be in this State with a force between six and eight thousand men. Much speculation and uncertainty is rife as to the rebel intentions. A bold stroke is evident.

NEW YORK ITEMS.

The following is taken from the New York correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer, viz:

"The two most important personages in the mind's eye of the public to-day are—

1st. The courier who dashed with a dispatch from Col. Breckinridge to Gen. Wheeler, at McMinnville, yesterday, acknowledging that Vicksburg had been taken, and

2d. The Illinois officer, who sent to Chicago a dispatch from near Vicksburg, on Sunday, stating that up to that time the rebels had not been surrendered.

If that courier and that officer had been in Wall street to-day, they would have been treated with all the courtesy and consideration due to the "reliable gentleman" par excellence.

The enrollment is proceeding quietly, but effectively. Contrary to the statements that have appeared in some of the journals, the names of all persons of color are taken down with the rest.

FROM HOOKER'S ARMY.

A special despatch to the New York Evening Post dated May 27th, says:

"A council of war was held yesterday at the White House. It was the result of the late visit of Senators Wade and Chandler to the army of the Potomac, and had reference to the offensive movements which the rebels in Virginia have been for some time threatening.

"Gen. Hooker is said to express the opinion that they are bringing up all their forces from Charleston, and probably North Carolina for the purpose of making an aggressive movement. In view, however, of the publicity which has been given to them threats by the rebels themselves, it seems most probable that their design is to provide for the defence of Richmond, and by their usual bluster deter Hooker from making another immediate advance."

FINANCIAL.

Gold closed at 144 1-4; Exchange 160.

MISCELLANEOUS.

It is denied that Price has taken Helena.

Six hundred contrabands arrived in Washington, from Aquia Creek, on the 27th.

Corcoran has been relieved by a court of enquiry of all blame for shooting Kimball.

The Herald says: "Give us Abraham Lincoln for the next President, and their powers for mischief are at an end—niggerheads, blockheads, copperheads, and all."

The Herald says Lincoln has had nothing to do with the arbitrary arrests in Indiana, Illinois and Ohio, but that they have been made by the "pliant tools," Burnside and Hascall, "at the bidding of Chase and Stanton."

The following spies were to have been hung in the North on Friday: - W. B. Compton, at Fort McHenry; Thomas Parkins, Alias Wankins, near Sandusky, Ohio; John B. Lyle at the same time and place; Geo. P. Semms and Owen S. Burgess.

[There is not one word of editorial in either the Herald or Inquirer in regard to Vicksburg.—REPORTER.] X.

From the Blackwater.

HEADQUARTERS CO. I, 41ST N. C. T.,
MURFREESBORO', N. C., May 29th, 1863.

DEAR PROGRESS:—Since my last writing, though there has been no fighting in this quarter, there have transpired several circumstances, all combined may interest the whole of your many readers.

On last Friday our regiment received marching orders, but where to go we knew not. Men and horses were kept accoutred during the entire day, and only awaited the signal to "forward" march. About 1 o'clock Friday night we commenced a march in the direction of Blackwater Bridge. After marching some ten miles in that direction, Gen. Jenkins detached a squadron of the regiment composed of companies I and E, under command of Capt. Robertson, and ordered him to make a force march to Murfreesboro', to look after three gunboats that had made their way up the Meherrin river to that point. We made a march of forty miles and selected a favorable position on the banks of the river, six miles below Murfreesboro', by 2 o'clock. But learning that the boats, much to our regret, had passed down about one hour before our arrival and our horses being very much jaded and half famished, Capt. Robertson ordered ur to bivouac for the night.

Early Sunday morning we entered this beautiful little village of ladies and flowers, to see what depredation had been committed by the marauders. It is true that the damage done did not exceed or even equal our expectation. But they committed many outrages against some of the inoffending citizens of this village, that none other than a brute or a savage would have done. Mr. Wilson, a highly respected citizen and merchant, was knocked down and nearly murdered by a Yankee soldier because he endeavored to prevent them from robbing his store. From other families they stole their entire wardrobes—broke up furniture, &c. They then went to the Methodist Female College and after bursting open the doors they took two or three blankets belonging to the school, besides breaking up the furniture of the building. They also took about fifteen thousand pounds of bacon from the Government Agent at this place, but not having the means of transportation at hand to get it to the river they distributed a good portion to the poorer classes and negroes, which the Agent had very little trouble in gathering again when they left. They committed many other petty outrages which only characterize them wherever they go.

There is one large boat lying off the mouth of the Meherrin and several others are lower down in the Chowan river. It is to be floped that our Generals will keep a strict eye on Murfreesboro', as Boykin's Depot on the Sea Board and Roanoke Railroad is within an hour or two's march of this place, and Weldon may be easily approached from this direction.

Yours, &c., W. D. H.

From Below.

CAMP IN THE WOODS,
May 29th, 1863.

J. L. PENNINGTON: Dear Sir:—Major Whitford was below the out-post last night and arrived to-night and gave orders to Captain E. Whitford to take a part of his company and cross Neuse River in the neighborhood of Batchelor's Creek, on the Newbern Road and try the Yankee camp at that place. The captain crossed the same night he got the order, and next morning at 10 o'clock he brought in ten live Yankees with their arms, &c. It was successfully and skilfully done. Capt. E. Whitford captured all the pickets the Yankees had out on this side of Batchelor's Creek that day, without firing but one gun. Nobody hurt on either side—only the feelings of the Massachusetts Abolitionists were hurt. There was three sergeants, one hospital steward, and six privates, making ten in that bunch. Nine of them belonged to the 46th Massachusetts regiment; the hospital steward was a member of the 27th Massachusetts.

Major Whitford captured on the morning of the 28th, three live Yankees near Barrington's Ferry, two and a half miles from Newbern.

Since Major Whitford had the schooner Sea-Bird burnt, the 5th Massachusetts regiment has landed at Wilkerson's point, and pitched tents to keep Whitford's men from breaking up their commerce. The Yankees have cut up all the small boats on Neuse river.

Since writing the above it is reported here that Maj. Whitford's men has had a fight with the 5th Massachusetts Regiment. I expect it is so. I saw Major Whitford send off a Lieutenant and twenty-five men night before last. The Majo will not let us know when anything is on hand, so we keep ready all the time, night and day. Whenever he goes around to all the out-posts we know there is something on hand. A negro Brigade is now in Newbern,—one regiment of N. C. negroes, one Massachusetts regiment of negroes,—commanded by a Yankee General Wilder. I believe the General is said to be a white man, but I doubt it very much. Some of the 44th Regiment Massachusetts volunteers will go home, others will reinlist, some of them are to be the officers of the N. C. negro regiment.

Foster is still in Newbern—too cowardly to come out to get fresh air. Gen. Palmer and General Hunt are also there. Prince is in command at Washington, N. C.; Wessells at Plymouth, N. C., two Brigades at each place, besides some Buffalo companies and tories. X.

THE ROLL OF HONOR.—The visits of angels in obedience to the Christian faith were "few and far between;" and so few and so far between are the occasions we receive to our "roll of honor."

A friend writing from Pleasant Retreat, McDowell County, informs us that—

"Thomas Hemphill, Jr., and Thomas Y. Greenlee, of McDowell county, N. C., have persisted in selling corn at one dollar per bushel, and wheat at one dollar per bushel, and everything else in the same proportion, not withstanding the high prices demanded by others; they have more over made it their business to render all possible assistance to soldiers and their families during the severe winter, giving corn, &c.; in short, they make it their constant aim to do all they can for the families of soldiers, and to keep down extortion."

Another correspondent furnishes three names from Montgomery County, for inscription on the roll of honor. He says:

"Mr. N. Bingham, one of my neighbors, is selling his entire lot of bacon at forty cents per pound to soldier's families, refusing higher prices from speculators. Mr. B. has no sons of his own, but has three apprentices who are all in the service, whom he keeps well clothed, besides helping other poor people to clothe their relatives in the army.

Mr. W. N. Thayer, of the same County, sells corn at $2 per bushel, when he could easily get $4.

Mr. Burney, who owns a mill on Uwharie River, in Randolph county, sells corn at $1 per bushel and flour at five cents per pound. Such men, says our correspondent, will not be forgotten at the close of the war.

We learn that Wilfred Turner, who owns the Turnersburg Factory, in Iredell County, has distributed two thousand dollars worth of sheetings and yarns, gratis, to the indigent families of soldiers in Iredell.

We learn also that Dr. J. T. Leach, of Johnston County, has sold, and is now selling what corn he can spare, to the families of soldiers at one dollar per bushel, and meat at correspondingly low prices. Dr. L. has been careful and and active in saving from speculators and others all the corn he could in his neighborhood, for the benefit of soldier's families.

Wesley Jones, Esq., of Wake County, has also sold his corn at low prices to the families of soldiers and others in need in his neighborhood. He has also supplied the needy who have applied to him from Harnett and Chatham Counties.

Gen. Alney Burgin, at Old Fort, McDowell County, is selling corn at $1 per bushel, and bacon at 12½ cents per pound to the families of soldiers.

Let these men, and all men and women who have done likewise, be remembered and honored.—Standard.

MR. VALLANDIGHAM AT SHELBYVILLE.—Mr. Vallandigham was brought to our lines by a flag of truce, but the commander of the outposts refused to recognize it for any such purpose as a claim of right to send any one through our lines by authority. The Federals bec ming alarmed, retired, leaving Mr. Vallandigham with his baggage upon the neutral ground. When our officers approached him, he proposed to deliver himself up as a prisoner of war. This was declined, inasmuch as he was not a soldier in the service of the United States. Upon learning his name and situation, he was, however, received as an exile, banished from his State, and as such tendered the hospitality of the country as any foreigner seeking a refuge or banished from his home for opinion sake. He was then received by Gen. Martin and escorted to his headquarters without any demonstration. There he was received by Col. J. Stoddard Johnson, of General Bragg's staff, and by him conveyed in a carriage to Shelbyville, where comfortable quarters were provided. There was in the whole no demonstration, but everywhere, as he passed the troops, who had heard of his coming, greeted him kindly and with silent tokens of sympathy and respect.

Mr. Vallandigham is cheerful, and seems to breathe freer on escaping from the Lincoln despotism. He very properly desires to avoid all public demonstration, and only asks that he may find a quiet refuge in our midst, until such time as the voice of his people, relieved from despotic influence shall call him again to their midst. He seems fully to realize the embarrassment of his position, and will, beyond doubt, be equal to its responsibilities. A dignified retirement and seclusion from all public matters, will to the minds of all proper persons as doubtless his own, be the best course for him to pursue.

In stature, Mr. Vallandigham is about five feet eleven inches, with dark hair and slight whiskers extending under the chin, but no moustache. His expression is very agreeable, and his manners affable and pleasant, in fact, attractive while not obtrusive. —Chattanooga Rebel.

A RICH DOCUMENT.—The following is a receipt for some hay stolen by the Yankee marauders in the county of Hardy, Va. The villians who have come South to plunder us are frequently in the habit of talking about the necessity of "free schools" to educate our people, that they may know something. The officer who left this receipt for the hay has no need of "free schools:"

Received of Mr John T Peerce this day Mar 20th 1862 for the use of 54 Reg Penna Vols and the Upshur battery two tons hay now under command of Col L M Campbell for which I will give the proper vouchers for when said Peerce furnishes satisfactory evidence of his loyalty to the Union

JOHN GORDON R Q M
54 Penna Vols

The gentleman whose hay was "receipted for," endorsed on the back of the receipt the accompanying capital hit:

AT HOME,
March 22d, 1863.

The Colonel in command of the two tons of hay, for which Capt. Gordon has promised to give the proper vouchers, &c., will please approve the within receipt in the absence of evidence of loyalty, and if he betrays as much ignorance thereby as the Q. M. has, I will forgive the Government the debt as a donation in favor of the Free School system.

JOHN T. PEERCE.

The Salisbury Watchman in speaking of the recent order from the Adjutant General's Office in relation to those persons who have been discharged by Judges of our courts, says:

We do hope the attitude of the Confederate authorities to the State will be speedily altered, as we do not desire any disagreement upon any question whatever, and we do know that the Governor of North Carolina wants none. But if the course now being inaugurated by the officers of the Confederate States, is the result of orders from the War Department, and persevered in, such a catastrophy must happen. No man with a thimble full of brains dare charge the Governor or the people of the State, with disaffection. The efforts of the Governor to sustain, and the blood of our brave soldiers so freely spilt upon every battle field, prove the utter falsity of even the thought. But it must be remembered that State lines and State tribunals have not yet been blotted out, and that as we were accustomed before the war to respect and abide by the decisions of our Courts as law, so they must now be respected and obeyed by all. If ever there was a time when the duty is more imperative upon the people in this particular, it is now. For when the rights and liberties of the people have once been usurped, all history proves the difficulty of regaining them. Our allegiance is first due to North Carolina, and then to the Confederacy.

The longer we live in this world of roses and thorns, the more we learn to revere those philanthrophic axioms, "Bear and forbear," "Live and let live," and to reverence a faith whose Christian founder has made it a condition of having our trespasses forgiven, that we should forgive the trespasses against us.

DYING CONFESSION OF A K. G. C.—A correspondent of the Philadelphia Inquirer furnishes the following statement:

A man, of respectable connections, who resided some years near Hillsburg, Penn., died a few days since at his home. A few hours previous to his death, he called a few friends round him, and related to them that he could not die peaceably without relieving his conscience of a weight which burdened it.

He confessed that he was a Knight of the Golden Circle, which order was secretly and extensively represented in most Northern cities. He stated that regular and general communication was established between the headquarters of the "Knights" and the Cabinet of Jeff. Davis. That he was cognizant that the rebel War Department had arranged with the organization of which he was a member, to create in Richmond, for the purpose of drawing the Northern army that far South, and while their attention was there engrossed, the rebel army, by a quick movement, would descend in full force upon Washington, and, aided by a general uprising of the K. G. C. in Pennsylvania and other Northern States, capture the city and seize upon the Government by the throat, leaving our army South at liberty to desolate at the expense of retaliation in their own States.

This is no fabrication, but unquestionable authority furnishes this confession of a dying man, one not now familiar to the residents of the district in which he resided.

WHERE ARE THEY?—According to the report of Colonel Ould, our Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners, the whole number of prisoners taken from us in the late battle about Chancellorsville by Hooker and exchanged is 2,100. Hooker claims, in his order congratulating his army on their miraculous escape from total destruction by our ever-victorious glorious army, to have captured 5,000 of our troops. It now remains a subject of legitimate inquiry whether Col. Ould is not bound, or, at least authorized by the cartel agreed upon, and regulating the exchange of prisoners, to require of the authorities at Washington to return the remaining 2,900, who, according to Hooker's congratulatory order, are still with us.—Rich. Whig.

FROM MISSOURI.—The Natchez Courier has useful intelligence, direct from Missouri. It says:

In addition to the taking of McNeil by Quantrell, the Confederate partizan, we also learn that Pilot Knob has been taken by the Missouri Confederates, and that our troops are having affairs pretty much their own way in that State.

A Confederate officer, who has been out as a scout in Missouri during this spring, also informs us that the Union families have all left that State for settlements, either in Oregon or in the East. The State is now in the hands of the Confederates, with the exception of points garrisoned by Lincoln troops and St. Louis.

Duplin County, May 25, 1863.—EDITOR OF THE PROGRESS, RALEIGH, N. C.—No wish to add to my party feelings, but as some friend has suggested something from the name of Wm. J. Houston, Esq., as a suitable person to be voted for for Congress in the district now represented by the Hon. Owen R. Kenan, and as each should have the same privileges as another, I suggest the name of THOMAS I. FAISON as a suitable person to represent the 3rd Congressional District at the next election. No better or more loyal man than Thos. Faison, no private man has done more for the Confederate and the soldiers. Three of his sons have devoted their time and talents in the cause of freedom, and one of them has sealed it with his blood.
